The Garden Tomb was identified as the Tomb of Christ by General Gordon (of Khartoum) in 1883. There is no early tradition to support this proposal, but it retains an atmosphere more readily identifiable with early Gospel descriptions of the site.

1 - 15 Stations of the Cross

The Church of the Holy Sepulchre is the holiest site in Christendom. It is a complex of over 30 chambers and chapels of Byzantine, Crusader, and 19th century Greek construction. Within the church are the last 5 Stations of the Cross.

The Western Wall is part of the Terrace of the Second Temple, as rebuilt by Herod. It is a place of prayer and Judaism's most holy site.

Temple Mount is one of the holiest sites in the world for Muslims, Christians and Jews. According to varying traditions, the sacred rock on the summit is where Abraham prepared to sacrifice Isaac, the site of David's altar and Solomon's Holy of Holies, and the place where Mohammed ascended to Heaven. In ancient times, Temple Mount was the site of Solomon's First Temple and Herod's Second Temple. Today, the site is occupied by two sacred Muslim structures, Dome of the Rock and the El-Aqsa Mosque.

The Church of the Holy Saviour is the site of the House of the High Priest Caiaphas, where Jesus was imprisoned and Peter denied Him three times.

It is believed that the The Kidron Valley is the site where the final judgement and resurrection will take place.

Mount Zion is holy to Moslems and Jews as the traditional site of King David's tomb. For Christians, Mt. Zion is the site of the Last Supper and the Virgin's death (Dormition Abbey).
